

Questions	Answers
Does IMD Procurement anticipate long delays for vehicle delivery-for vehicles that were purchased under state contract for this FY?	Chris: Marie-Yes, we do anticipate long delivery windows for FY22 vehicles. However, I will be in consistent contact with our vehicle vendors to keep tabs on delivery status. Please feel free to reach out to me with any issues you may be having with your vehicle deliveries.
OUTS is still looking for FY 21 vehicles being delivered	Statement
Rich Sampson: If you'd like that yellow graphic I shared, you can grab it here: https://twitter.com/swtanation/status/1446178737624657922
OUTS Fares helps us to afford more trips.	Statement
Kia alls I see is Urban cities not Rural which is most of what our state is....	Statement
Paying fares gives the rider some ownership into the program and reduces no shows. When something is totally free, they don't care if they show up or not and won't call and cancel.	Statement
It cost us as much to process fares as we collect each year, but the commissioners did not want to go fare-free because of public opinion of the operation.	Statement
We are fare free in Burlington since June	Statement
Kai are you going to subsidize the over expenditures and drive the over flow vans needed?	Statement
January Fare Free Webinar	Registrations: tgkarlso@ncsu.edu
*Extended to March 18, 2022 for masks. *I thought we got an update on continuing the mask mandate. But I could have dreamed it. *We were told mask mandate was extended until mid-March	https://www.transit.dot.gov/TransitMaskUp TSA Website states mask requirement extended through March 18, 2022

