The Consultant Rate Schedule System collects staff hourly rates, overhead percentage rates, and other information from private consulting firms (PCFs) that are prequalified to do business with NCDOT. If a firm has multiple offices or locations, a separate application is created for each location.

Locations
Please Select a Location
Name	Physical Address	Mailing Address	Renewal Date	Application Number	Application Status	Prequal Status
Location 1	123 E West St			000000	In-Process	Approved
Location 2	11 Lane St	PO Box 999		000001	In-Process	In-Process

Locations Section

The Locations section defaults when the CRS system is accessed. Only locations prequalified as a PCF display in the Locations section. If you have a location that is prequalified as a PCF but does not display in the Locations section, contact the PSMU at NCDOT.

Name—name of location; click link to create, continue/change/correct, or display an application

Physical Address—physical address for the location

Mailing Address—mailing address for the location (if applicable)

Renewal Date—indicates when new staff hourly rates may be submitted for previously approved employees

Application Number—unique identifier for application; assigned when Create New Application is clicked

Application Status—status of application; controls actions that can be performed (Refer to the table on page 4 for additional information about application statuses and actions.)

Prequal Status—firm's prequalification application status—information only

Application Statuses

Most actions will change the application status to In Process, even if no data was added, deleted, or changed. However:

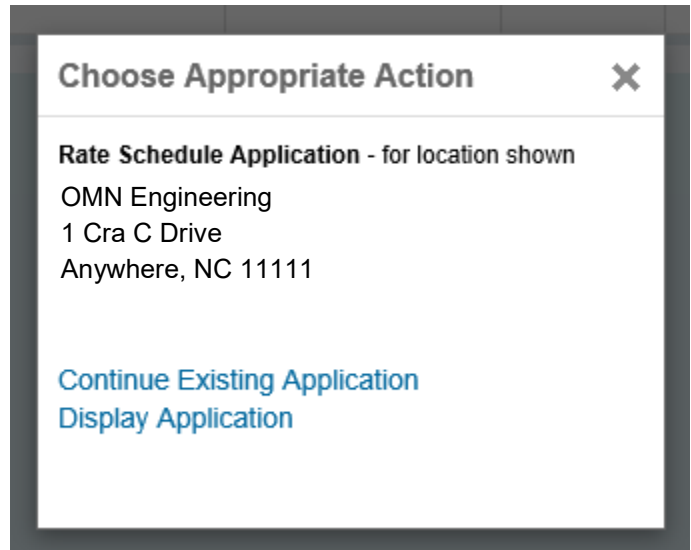

- Submitting the application changes the status to Submitted for Approval.
- If the application status was already In Process, it remains In Process unless you submit it.
- The Display Application action does not change the application status.

Application Approval vs Rejection

When an application is submitted, NCDOT reviews the data and either approves or rejects the application. After an application is approved, the application should be displayed and the approved data reviewed. An application may be rejected if information on the application does not match information already provided to NCDOT. The application must be submitted again, even if no changes are required.

Choose an Action

Clicking a link in the Name column of the Locations section displays the Choose Appropriate Action dialog box. The actions available depend upon the status of the application. (Refer to the table below for additional information about application statuses and actions.) Click a link to perform the desired action.
