Content Summary: Postponement of Letting Date

The above contract has experienced the following revision:

Due to the impending severe weather, forecasted from the National Weather Service, Divion 14 is postponing tomorrow's letting.

The letting date for this contract has been moved from Tuesday, January 9, 2024, to Thursday, January 11, 2024. Bids are still due at 2:00 PM. Please see the attached revised Proposal Cover Page and the first page of the Instructions to Bidders that reflect the new letting date.

Since there are no payment and performance bonds required for this project, the availability & completion dates, and intermediate contract times for this contract are not impacted by this letting date adjustment, thus those remain the same. However, the turnaround time to submit post-award documentation (Execution of Contract and Certificate of Insurance) will be shortened.
