Content Summary: Postponement of Letting Date

The above contract has experienced the following revision:

Due to the impending severe weather, forecasted from the National Weather Service, Division 14 is postponing tomorrow's letting.

The letting date for this contract has been moved from Tuesday, January 9, 2024, to Thursday, January 11, 2024. Bids are still due at 2:00 PM.

The following have been revised to reflect the new letting date:

1. Proposal cover page (see attached).
2. First page of the Instructions to Bidders (see attached).
3. Plans title sheet (see attached).

Since there are no payment and performance bonds required for this project, the availability & completion dates, and intermediate contract times for this contract are not impacted by this letting date adjustment, thus those remain the same. However, the turnaround time to submit post-award documentation (Execution of Contract and Certificate of Insurance) will be shortened.
