1. The following are questions received about the Solicitation and the State's response to those questions:

Question #	Vendor Question	State's Response
1.	The solicitation requires NCDOT Small Business Enterprise certification and specifies an annual gross income threshold of $1.5 million or less, exclusive of materials. Please confirm whether an otherwise qualifying out-of-state company may apply for certification and participate, provided certification is active by bid opening.	Yes. An out-of-state firm may participate in this solicitation provided it obtains NCDOT Small Business Enterprise (SBE) certification, meets all applicable eligibility requirements, and has an active NCDOT SBE certification at the time of bid opening.
2.	The subcontracting provisions allow certain approved subcontracted work but prohibit subcontracting required personnel staffing, including supervisors. Please confirm that all required rest-area attendants and supervisory personnel must be direct employees of the prime contractor, rather than employees of an approved local subcontractor.	Yes. All required rest area attendants and supervisors must be employees of the prime contractor and may not be subcontracted.
