

Construction Manual Corrections Sheet 2014

While using the Construction Manual, you may encounter technical mistakes or printing errors or you may have suggested improvements. Use this Correction Sheet to report any errors or suggested improvements.

INSTRUCTIONS:

- 1. As you use the Construction Manual as a reference, record mistakes and printing errors as you come across them.
- 2. If you have recorded any mistakes or printing errors, return this sheet to the Construction Unit.
- 3. Do not use this sheet for asking questions or making comments that require a reply; please write a separate letter for such questions or comments.

I have noted the following mistakes and printing errors in the Construction Manual (Revised 2014)
