  - ii. Also went over the component of the CTP
  - iii. More details of when and why the CTP was paused
  - iv. Resuming CTP efforts
  - v. Reviewed the CTP report and appendix

3. Update Adopting Agencies

- a. Nazia stated that those representing adopting/endorsing agencies on the committee will update their council and boards on both public involvement sessions, update on CTP and eventual adoptions

4. Public Involvement Sessions

- a. Nazia went over Public Input information page stating that this will serve as the virtual platform for feedback during public involvement session
- b. The committee agreed to have three in-person public involvement sessions: one on the northern portion of the county, one in the middle and one to the south
- c. Nazia will work with Helen and Kirstie to find locations, dates and times
- d. Helen volunteered to help with updating local council and boards throughout the county
- e. Gene Smith suggested having one PI session at the Virginia Williamson Event Center
- f. Mark Hoeweler asked to get the public involvement sessions done sooner than later since they are working on the MTP at the same time
- g. Nazia responded to Mark and let him that she will do her best to have all public involvement sessions set up in May both in-person and virtually. If this cannot happen for any reason, she will keep the committee updated

5. Next Steps

- a. Nazia went over the next steps which include:
  - i. Updating adopting agencies
  - ii. Public involvement (PI)
  - iii. Last steering committee meeting after PI
  - iv. Preparations for adoptions
- b. Helen asked if they are expected to review the documents and if so, how long will they have for review?
- c. Nazia stated yes, she wants the committee to review the documents. She also stated that even though the CTP will be updated until right after public involvement, she prefers the committee take 4-6 weeks to review the documents starting in a few days so that she can incorporate feedback early
- d. Nazia stated she will send links and minutes in the next day or two to the committee
