

Countdown Pedestrian Signal Heads

Date:

Thu, 21 Oct 2004 16:34:14 -0400

From:

"Richard E. Mullinax" <rmullinax@dot.state.nc.us>

Organization:

North Carolina Department of Transportation

To:

Amy Hambright <abhambright@dot.state.nc.us>, Amy Lingenfelter <ALingenfelter@dot.state.nc.us>, Andy McKay <amckay@dot.state.nc.us>, Angela Pegram <APegram@dot.state.nc.us>, "Belayneh D. Mekuria" <bmekuria@dot.state.nc.us>, Billy Wynn <bwynn@dot.state.nc.us>, "Boniface A. Maduabuchukwu" <bmadu@dot.state.nc.us>, "C. Frank Andrews" <candrews@dot.state.nc.us>, Charles Carter <cecarter@dot.state.nc.us>, "Charles E. Strickland" <CEStrickland@dot.state.nc.us>, Charles Pierce <cepierce@dot.state.nc.us>, Cheryl Collins <cjcollins@dot.state.nc.us>, Courtney Krauss <ckrauss@dot.state.nc.us>, Cynthia Squires <CSquires@dot.state.nc.us>, Dean Harris <deanharris@dot.state.nc.us>,

CC:

"Greg A. Fuller" <gfuller@dot.state.nc.us>, "Anthony D. Wyatt,PE" <awyatt@dot.state.nc.us>

Please begin using countdown pedestrian signal heads as the standard display for traffic signal designs prepared for use on the State Highway System. The use of pedestrian signal heads without the countdown feature should be a design exception due to site specific considerations..

Please see me if further details are needed or if you need assistance with any site specific concerns.

--

Richard Mullinax, PE
Signals and Geometrics Engineer

--

NCDOT - Traffic Engineering
122 North McDowell Street
Raleigh, NC 27603

--

phone 919-733-5569
email RMullinax@dot.state.nc.us