

SAF130 Hazard Communication 2012 Employee Quiz

Please circle or highlight the BEST answer.

1. All Safety Data Sheets are required to have the same format.
 - A. True
 - B. False
2. What are the two primary hazard classifications?
 - A. Danger and Warning
 - B. Skin irritants and Respiratory tract irritants
 - C. Physical hazards and Health hazards
 - D. Flammable gases and Flammable liquids
3. The pictogram with a flame indicates:
 - A. Burns to the skin
 - B. Oxidizers
 - C. Explosives
 - D. Flammables
4. The pictogram with an exclamation mark indicates a health hazard.
 - A. True
 - B. False
5. Which of the following are Signal Words?
 - A. Caution & Hazard
 - B. Caution & Danger
 - C. Warning & Danger
 - D. Warning & Poison
6. Which sections of the Safety Data Sheet are required?
 - A. Chemical Identification
 - B. Hazards Identification
 - C. Composition or Ingredients
 - D. First Aid
 - E. Physical properties
 - F. A, B, C, D, & E
 - G. A, B, & C
 - H. A, B, C, & E
7. What “general information” can be found in Sections 1-8 of the SDS?
 - A. Chemical Identification, Hazards, First aid, & Personal Protective Equipment
 - B. Physical properties, Chemical properties, & Reactivity information.
 - C. Ecological information, Regulatory info, Disposal and transport information
 - D. A & B

SAF130 Hazard Communication 2012 Employee Quiz

8. Why were Material Safety Data Sheets (MSDSs) changed to Safety Data Sheets (SDSs)?

- A. Removing the word "Material" uses less paper and less ink
- B. "Material Safety Data Sheet" was too long and confusing
- C. SDSs are required to be in a standard format and provide specific information
- D. SDSs have little required content and no required format

9. You get information about the hazards of a chemical from the:

- A. Hazard class
- B. Pictogram
- C. Signal word
- D. Label
- E. Safety Data Sheet
- F. B&C
- G. All of the above

10. The HazComm standard requires:

- A. All employees, including office staff, to be trained on Hazard Communication
- B. Provisions to provide hazardous chemical information to contactors
- C. Hazard awareness training for non-routine tasks
- D. Site specific container labeling procedures
- E. A & C
- F. B & C
- G. C & D

11. Which is (are) a Class(es) of Health Hazard?

- | | |
|----------------------|------------------------|
| A. Flammable Liquids | E. Corrosive to metals |
| B. Toxic Chemicals | F. Carcinogen |
| C. Oxidizing Liquids | G. A, C, & E |
| D. Corrosive to skin | H. B, D, & F |

12. Which is (are) a Class(es) of Physical Hazard?

- | | |
|----------------------|------------------------|
| A. Flammable Liquids | E. Corrosive to metals |
| B. Toxic Chemicals | F. Carcinogen |
| C. Oxidizing Liquids | G. A, C, & E |
| D. Corrosive to skin | H. B, D, & F |

13. What type of information is provided on the label

- A. Pictogram, flash point, & physical properties
- B. Signal word, pictogram, & chemical ingredients
- C. Product identifier, signal word, & pictogram
- D. Supplier name, signal word, & hazard class

Name: _____ Date: _____

Employee ID #: _____ Unit: _____